Animal Protectors Blue Collar Cat Program

We all know a cat or two that aren't suitable for a wholly domestic, entirely indoor life. But that's okay, because there are other ways for cats and humans to live together harmoniously and help each other out! At Animal Protectors, we're always looking for new ways to expand the relationship between humans and animals, so we were thrilled to launch our Blue Collar Cats program over Labor Day weekend this year.

Blue Collar Cats is a program that looks to re-home cats, in our population, that would otherwise not be suitable for placement as house pets. Candidates for Blue Collar Cats exhibit one or more of the following behaviors that delay traditional adoption:

- They're social with people but demonstrate severe petting-induced and/or play aggression
- They're not social with people and prefer the company of other animals
- Their litter box habits make them unsuitable for indoor living, (medical explanations of those behaviors have been ruled out)

Blue Collar Cats will earn their keep by hunting pests and rodents. They'll live a life not totally indoors and replace poison, traps and pesticides as a form of rodent control, making the world a healthier place. Our first Blue Collar Cat adoption occurred in September. We were so happy to see Moose leave the shelter for a bigger and brighter life as a working cat.

Moose

Working cat programs like Blue Collar Cats are part of a trend sweeping the nation from Washington DC to Chicago to Los Angeles. They play off of thousands of years of history—the domestication of cats began with the need for farmers to protect grain storage in 7500 BCE. Now business owners and country dwellers can continue the tradition and adopt their own barn cat or “mouser.”

If you are interested in your own Blue Collar Cat, know that you'd still provide food, water, vet care, and shelter from the elements to your new cat, but you would also enjoy all the benefits of a cat that earns its keep and lower adoption fees as well. You'd also be helping the shelter as it continues to work toward increasing its live release rate, decreasing the animals' average lengths of stay, and improving the lives of community cats!

Get Yourself a Blue Collar Cat! • $35 for a lone worker • $50 for a pair of coworkers

PYEWACKET

*Sponsored by Gertrude Camp
In honor of Donna Miklos' birthday*

Pyewacket is one pretty kitty! This 7 year old calico arrived with us after her previous owner passed away. Pyewacket loves attention and will let you pet her all day long. "Pyewacket" is the popular name for a witch's familiar, but even though she has a spooky name she's a total sweetheart!

UPDOG

*Sponsored by Mark and Robin Kuchta
In memory of Jesse*

Updog is a shy girl who arrived as a stray. This little cutie can be timid and unsure in new situations, but give her a chance to warm up and you'll see what a true sweetie she is! Updog is still very young, estimated to be between 1 and 2 years old. She's lovable and enjoys being with her favorite people the most!

OPHELIA

*Sponsored by Barbara Reeser-Smiesko
In honor of Noodle*

Ophelia is a senior tabby who was found living as a stray. She is estimated to be about 10 years old. A calm home where Ophelia can relax and adjust at her own speed would be best for her. She deserves a loving and patient family to call her own!

BOBO

*Sponsored by David and Allison Holmes
In memory of our gray girl, Sonny.
We miss you Bunzy.*

This handsome face belongs to Bobo! He was originally rescued from a dire situation back in 2019. He was recently returned from adoption due to a conflict in the home with another dog. Bobo enjoys the company of people and does have experience living with cats. This senior Great Dane mix is 9 years old and deserves to have a loving home that is all his own!

CLAUDIA

*Sponsored by Diane Costello
In loving memory of Sweet Trixie*

From the same home as Costello, Claudia has taken a bit longer to adjust to her new environment and spends a lot of her time hidden away from view. She likes napping in cardboard boxes and watching out the windows. Claudia is 11 years old and she needs a patient family who can give her the time she needs.

LOUIE

*Sponsored by Randy, Sue and Darrin Zaleski
In memory of Gene Langham*

Louie is big, beautiful, and full of character! This 5-year-old Redbone Coonhound has been waiting very patiently for his forever home. Louie weighs in at over 100 pounds and is more active than you'd think! He's a curious dog and always wants to be in on whatever is going on.

COSTELLO

*Sponsored by Randy, Sue and Darrin Zaleski
In memory of Midnight Banas*

Costello is as handsome as he is friendly and lovable! This black cat is outgoing and always one of the first to come and say hello when you enter the cat room! He is 8 years old and came to us after his owner had to enter assisted-living. Costello has previously lived with other cats and does very well with them!

TEAL

*Sponsored by Martin Stewart
In loving memory of Chappy Stewart and Elsie Brophy*

This gorgeous gal is Teal! She has been with us for more than 6 months. Teal is smart as a whip and has already mastered: sit, shake, down, and roll over! Teal is between 1 and 2 years old. She can be wary of strangers at first, but is the of the most loyal dog you'll ever meet! Give her a chance to win you over.
